

The Tusculum Express

September 2011

Student Spotlight:

Genny Martinez became a US citizen on April 28, 2011.

Originally from Puerto Ordaz, Venezuela, Genny Martinez grew up with nine siblings. One of those siblings, his sister, influenced his decision to stay in America permanently.

Genny said, "My sister is married to an American guy. I came to visit her three times then decided to stay because of the opportunities this country offers."

He has taken full advantage of those opportunities. After beginning his studies at another college, he found Tusculum a better fit for his schedule and educational goals. The location, supportive teachers and staff, and interaction with different people from unique backgrounds appealed to him. He also liked the flexibility of working and going to school.

"I always have higher goals in my life," said Genny. By working hard and going to Tusculum, I can achieve any goal in this country."

The past year has been particularly busy. On April 28, 2011, Genny became a United States citizen. Additionally in 2011, he purchased his first home and started a new job, where he has many opportunities for future advancement.

He looks forward to accomplishing another goal and completing his Organizational Management degree in 2012. Genny says, "It will be a wonderful day when I complete this chapter in my life."
