

Sales Account Representative

Job Description

My Social Blend offers unlimited income opportunities to those with desire and ambition. If you've been an outside sales representative or if you've never done sales our world-class hands-on support and training will bring you income potential beyond your expectations. My Social Blend seeks independent Outside Sales Representatives who desire great results and will use their entrepreneurial attitude, ambition and energy to make it happen—with our help every step of the way.

Create Your Own Entrepreneurial Business With Our Help!

- Set and control your prospecting activities and sales appointments with our help
- Meet business owners in your area and build win-win relationships
- Work with your Regional Manager who will help you be successful
- Bring our cutting-edge technology to your clients to create customer loyalty
- Keep in good contact with your clients for easy referral business

Our amazing, world-class support for your sales efforts will empower your success— starting with your Regional Manager and including sales support, technical assistance, and customer support available for you!

Job Requirements

Our successful Sales Representatives have varying backgrounds and experience — no specific sales experience is necessary. If you've never done sales before, we specialize in getting you going and supporting you on your way to great success as an outside sales representative. If you have been in sales, bring your great skills to a sales environment that will allow you to thrive as you never have before! Prior experience as an outside sales representative or outside sales account manager is not necessary, but the following is preferred for best success:

- Ambition, energy, confidence
- A great attitude for success
- A strong work ethic
- The desire to succeed
- High ethical standards
- Presentable and professional appearance and behavior
- Basic computer knowledge
- Dependable transportation

Benefits

- The industry's highest compensation
 - Multiple areas of amazing upfront bonuses and commissions
 - Multiple areas of great ongoing revenue including residual commission
 - Many promotional incentives and contests
 - Incredible training and support
 - Flexible hours – you set your own schedule
 - Professional marketing literature and materials provided
 - Fantastic online tools to monitor and manage your activities
 - A recession-proof, high-growth industry

For more information contact Jacob Johnson
(865) 804-4166
jacob.johnson@mysocialblend.com

